

Provisional programme

Monday 31st August

- 13.30-15.00/
15.30-17.00 Open top city bus tour
- 19.00-23.00 Soup and Stovies evening (including quiz) at Bute Hall,
University of Glasgow

Tuesday 1st September

- 9.30-10.00 OPENING CEREMONY
- Moderator: Eddie Glutton
- 10.00-11.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: The Future of Biomedical Research (Dr Alistair MacKenzie)
- 11.00-11.45 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: The history of complementary methods of pain control (Dr Leslie Colvin)
- 11.45-12.15 Coffee
- 12.15-13.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: The role of animals, anaesthesia and analgesia in medical developments (Dr Paul Flecknell)
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-17.30 Free communications
- 20.00-23.00 Welcome Reception (Glasgow City Chambers)

Wednesday 2nd September

- Moderator: Carolyn Morton
- 9.00-10.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Pharmacogenetics (Dr Sue Hill)
- 10.00-11.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Sex and gender differences in pain (Dr Anita Holdcroft)
- 11.00-11.30 Coffee

CONTROVERSIES

Moderator: Dr Craig Johnson

- 11.30-13.00 "MAC – an irrelevant outdated and misused construct, or the basis of safe surgical anaesthesia" (Drs Jo Murrell and Bruno Pypendop)
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-17.30 Free communications
- 19.30-00.00 Conference Banquet with Ceilidh (Kelvingrove Art Gallery)

Thursday 3rd September

Moderator: Elizabeth Leece

- 9.00-10.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Respiratory physiology and dogma (Dr Andrew Lumb)
- 10.00-11.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: The difference between sedation and anaesthesia (Dr Duncan Young)
- 11.00-11.30 Coffee

CONTROVERSIES

Moderator: Dorothy McKeegan

- 11.30-13.00 ETHICS
1. An animal ethics perspective
2. Ethical issues in neonates
(Drs Peter Sandoe and Dominic Wilkinson)
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-17.00 Distillery and Loch Lomond tour
- Evening free for own arrangements

Friday 4th September

Moderator: Pamela Murison

- 9.00-10.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Reptile anaesthesia and analgesia (Dr Craig Mosley)

10.00-11.00 KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Does pain matter to fish? (Dr Lynne Sneddon)

11.00-11.30 Coffee

CONTROVERSIES
Moderator: Dr Mark Senior

11.30-13.00 Acepromazine, nitrous oxide and halothane – 50 years past their sell by date or the bedrock of safe anaesthesia” (Martina Mosing and Emma Love)

13.00-17.00 Free communications

17.00-17.30 Closing ceremony